I understand that in accordance with the Representation of the People Regulations 2001, that:

- The Register of Electors is open to public inspection under supervision and contains the names of all those registered to vote in Central Bedfordshire.
- Information from the Register may only be recorded by making hand written notes. Photocopying or electronic recording are not permitted by law.
- Information taken from this register must not be used for commercial purposes, unless the information has been published in the edited version of the register. The edited version of the register is also available on request.
- If your details are incorrect or your name is not included in the Register – or if you believe another entry is incorrect – please contact the Electoral Registration Officer.
- Under these regulations, anyone who fails to observe these conditions is committing a criminal offence. The penalty is a fine up to level 5 (currently £5,000).
